VALUE VISION VOLUNTEERING
Join Us in Disney’s Coronado Springs for NAON’s 36th Annual Congress

“I’m going to Disney World!” These five simple words are shouted daily, from excited children to winning sports teams celebrating their victories. Now, it is your turn to shout “I’m going to Disney World” as NAON celebrates you!

It is my pleasure to invite you, your families, and your coworkers to the Happiest Place on Earth! From May 21 - 24, the National Association of Orthopaedic Nurses will be hosting the 36th Annual Congress in Disney World. The theme for this year’s Congress is Value, Vision, and Volunteering. Attendees will quickly recognize the Value added to this year’s event, including more ways to earn educational credits before, during, and after Congress. However, do not overlook our Vision of fun; from Ortho Olympics and Joint Connection to our annual party, there is plenty of fun to be had at Congress.

The excitement does not stop there; you are only minutes away from the Magic Kingdom, Epcot, Hollywood Studios, and Animal Kingdom. If that is not enough, you can head downtown to the all-new Disney Springs, featuring unique boutiques, one-of-a-kind restaurants, and world class entertainment! This year’s Congress truly has something for everyone, including you. I cannot wait to see you at NAON’s Annual Congress in May!

Through its education, NAON promotes excellence in the care of patients with musculoskeletal conditions in diverse settings around the world.

36th Annual Congress Learning Objectives

NAON’s 36th Annual Congress provides discussions on basic knowledge and skills for orthopaedic nurses. There is also sharing of research, best practices, and evidence-based recommendations. The content is driven largely by practice gaps, associated educational needs identified by past Congress attendees, and in assessing trends in literature and practice. The Congress Unit of the NAON Education Committee (NEC) also strives to present state-of-the-art advances in orthopaedic nursing care. Learners are provided updates in healthcare trends, offered multiple opportunities to network with participants, and are given several occasions to interact with exhibitors and product vendors.

By participating in this conference, attendees will increase their confidence and ability to:
• discuss current approaches for improving patient care and outcomes
• share strategic knowledge about current issues facing orthopaedic nursing and the healthcare industry
• implement improvements to clinical practice and administrative strategies for effective quality care of patients with a variety of musculoskeletal conditions
• incorporate evidence-based practice into the care of patients and their families
